Re: Case 1:22-cv-06727-PKC UrthTech LLC et. al v. GOJO Industries, Inc.—
Joint Letter Motion to Reschedule Initial Pretrial Conference

Dear Judge Castel:

Your Honor has scheduled an Initial Pretrial Conference for October 13 at 4:30 PM (ECF No. 7). Counsel for Plaintiffs UrthTech LLC and Aziz Awad (collectively, “UrthTech”) and Counsel for Defendant GOJO Industries, Inc. (“GOJO”) conferred via email and jointly submit this Motion, requesting to reschedule the Initial Pretrial Conference to November 3, 2022. Good cause exists for at least two reasons. First, GOJO’s counsel has a previously scheduled obligation on October 13 that conflicts with the scheduled conference. Second, GOJO’s response to UrthTech’s Complaint is due on October 11, just two days before the currently scheduled conference. Moving the Initial Pretrial Conference to November 3 will provide this Court a reasonable amount of time to consider GOJO’s responsive pleading, which may be a motion to dismiss under Rule 12, before the Initial Pretrial Conference. In addition, moving the Initial Pretrial Conference to November 3 will give the parties until October 13 to hold their first Rule 26(f) conference, which date the parties have also agreed to, and would allow the parties to consider GOJO’s response, as required under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) (“In conferring, the parties must consider the nature and basis of their claims and defenses and the possibilities for promptly settling or resolving the case[.]”). Rescheduling the Initial Pretrial Conference to November 3 will thus conserve the parties’ and the Court’s resources and serve judicial economy. Accordingly, the parties jointly and respectfully request that the Initial Pretrial Conference be rescheduled from October 13 to November 3, subject to the Court’s availability.

Sincerely,

/s/ Marc Izraelewicz
